“ You have made something that could have been difficult and time consuming much less so. I'm sure this initiative will prove invaluable to many. ”

Phillipa Roberts (Conveyancer's client)

“ For the first time we can offer clients clear recommendations as to how to obtain further useful information which is directly relevant to them. Having assessed and understood any risk involved, this allows clients far greater peace of mind to determine the best way to proceed with their purchase. At the same time this speeds up the process, so it seems like a win-win. ”
